

VALUING WATER: AN INTERDISCIPLINARY DIALOGUE ON CULTURE-BASED SOLUTIONS FOR PRESENT AND FUTURE WATER CHALLENGES

October 5, 10.15 – 17.00

Zaal K, Faculty of Architecture, TU Delft (campus map)

Julianalaan 134, 2628 BL Delft

PROGRAMME

10.15-10.45 Coffee in front of the Ketelhuis

10.45 - 10.55 – Welcome/Brief introductions

Prof. Carola Hein, Chair History of Architecture TU Delft,

Goals (academic): Outcome Publication: From diversity in disciplinary perspectives to operational guidance

Charlotte van Emstede, President ICOMOS NL, ICOMOS ISC

Goals (institutional): Outcome Document for the UN Water Decade MTR in 2023

10.55 - 11.10 - Introduction Henk Ovink (Netherlands Water Envoy)

Goals (policy): Interest in the water field for related cultural heritage

11.10 - 11.25 - Eelco van Beek (TU Twente),

Goals (professional): Water managers perspectives on water related cultural heritage

11.25 - 11.40 Petra Hellegers (Wageningen University):

Goals (collaborative): Valuing Water Framework and water related cultural heritage

11.40 – 11:50 Ase Johannessen (Global Centre on Adaptation)

Toolbox on (behaviour) change and promoting innovation (reframing) with the help of culture and valuing water for the Water Adaptation Community at GCA.

12:20-12:30: Jan Jorrit Hasselaar (Vrije Universiteit)

Water, heritage and spirituality

11:50-12.20 Roundtable discussion: What are values of water and water-related heritage?

Elyze Storms-Smeets, Frans Wijsen, Maarten Ouboter, moderated by Sabine Luning.

12.20 – 12.30 Exploring Values: Positioning the work field of the participants to explore value-related working fields. Including comments by the writers of the Blue Papers

What are key questions to be addressed, past, present, and future? What disciplines, approaches are needed to explore the multiple spiritual, cultural, material, financial and other values, moderated by Hilde Sennema.

12.30 – 13.30 lunch

Short films from the WaterWorks course: What is water?

13.30 – 14.00 Breakout groups: Working in small groups to identify and define water related heritage values for water managers and for heritage professionals, e.g. material, conceptual and spiritual, political, economic, etc. at a time of climate change.

14.00 – 14.30 Breakout groups: Operationalizing heritage values (indicators, methodologies) into the Valuing Water Framework and other Frameworks e.g. IWRM.

Reporting out in plenary session.

14.30 – 15.00 Follow up steps/work towards UN Water Decade MTR

15.00 – 16.00 Game 'Water values' Presentation of current state

16:00 Drinks and presentation of online open course WaterWorks: Activating heritage for sustainable development

This conference will be included in the bilateral cooperation agreement between CIRAT and Government of Senegal as a preparatory activity for World Water Forum 9 to be held next March in Dakar Senegal.

PREPARATION

BluePapers

Delft Design for Values

MOOC on values in Port Cities

Ingrid Mulder on Values and Design

Value cards

